

GIRLS INC

Empowering Girls Through Personal Performance

DARE TO BE A GIRL WHO SPEAKS HER MIND

"Why does the world value my face and figure over my intelligence and courage?"
Middle School girls are engaging in compelling, raw, & honest conversations on topics important to them: friendship, boys, parents, social justice, school, body image, competition, bullying, violence against girls, reputations and more.
Imagine turning this dialogue into powerful theatre... and performing it to transform the way girls are treated and the ways girls treat other girls in your school.

Through writing exercises, acting, improvisational theatre, art, music, Viewpoints & Composition, girls will score, choreograph and act what they've written: the result is a powerful 30-40 minute production they own and share at an all-school assembly.

GIRLS INC invites girls from Kulshan Middle School in Whatcom County to participate in the

2013 — "TELL IT LIKE IT IS" — Tour

REGISTER NOW for this new dynamic after-school enrichment

MONDAYS 4:00 - 5:30

Tuition: $125 for the Semester (March 18 – June 3)

For Registration Information, please contact: PTSA lead BECKY WEST | kmsprograms@hotmail.com